Ricing

Catalina Vajiac && Peter Bui

Ricing? Like, rice, the food?

Etymology (aka from Urban Dictionary)

"To rice, or to soup up a crappy car with the mistaken idea that type 'R' stickers and performance yellow paint makes it go faster."

s/car/computer:)

Examples: r/unixporn (don't worry it's SFW)

Why is this important?

My first experience with Linux: "Woah I can make things look however I want? Cool."

My first experience with ricing: "...I'm copying/pasting from SO, I'm sure to break something"

What can I change?

Component	Difficulty	Resources
Wallpaper	Easy	OpenDesktop, OMG Ubuntu Archive
Icons	Easy	OpenDesktop, OMG Ubuntu Archive
Fonts	Easy	Google Fonts, Powerline Fonts
Toolkit	Medium	OpenDesktop, OMG Ubuntu Archive
Application	Medium	Depends on the application
Desktop Environment	Advanced	Lots of different permutations

How does everything fit together?

How it Works

It's just config files....so many config files...

.i3conf

.i3statusconf

.tmux.conf

Polybar config and launch.sh

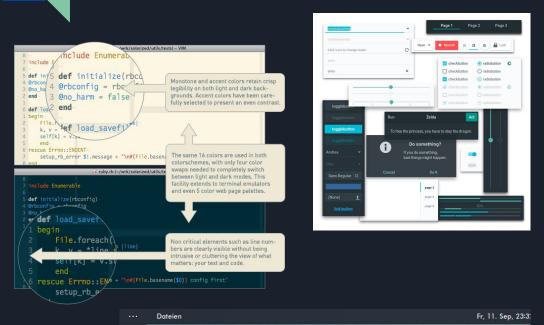

lock.sh

.bashrc

.vimrc

What are some favorite flavors of rice?

How to Keep Organized?

Yay, GitHub! Or GitLab! Or BitBucket! (whatever you use)

My dotfiles can be found here. Not fancy, but it works...
